

Performance Fee Reduction Opportunity

For initial investments above 5000 USD, the manager 1617 is offering a reduced performance fee of only 10%.

Investment Strategy

Trading is performed manually by the manager who has more than 10 years trading experience as a high level trader and money manager using a range of proprietary indicators and trading tools to identify trends, analyze history and indicate the best entry and exit prices for a specific pair or symbol. Using strict fundamental considerations, technical analysis and trading tools to enter the market at the optimal time and at the best pricing in order to maximize the profitability and reduce risk of loss. Trading is on selected currency pairs, commodities and Indices with less volatility as some major pairs in order to control risk and deliver best returns and mainly the target is short term trading.

Risk Management

The risk to return management is controlled with the use of proprietary indicators that feed price history, current market data and the use of more than 10 years trading experience to provide mechanisms to manage and lower risk. Symbols traded are targeted low risk symbols that include FX, commodities and Indices that are trendy and not volatile to ensure risk is reduced and profitability maximized. Orders are opened with less than 2% of total funds to protect investments. Short term trading is mostly implemented to save costs and control the risk element.
