

Strategy

“An intelligent EA that uses built in indicators and chart readers on three pairs. The system does not use trade multipliers which keeps risk at the lowest level possible.”

The EA focuses on profiting from short-term trends on specific pairs that provide enough movement to allow the system to target monthly profits of 30%. The system reads the price action on H1 and H4 timeframe charts constantly to find the best entry points.

Risk Management

When the EA's indicators receive strong signals trades are executed and are set with an achievable take profit level for short-term trends, should the price reach a 350 points loss the system will close the order using the built-in risk management features.
