

Strategy

“A Powerful scalping system that targets two major pairs, trading at specific times of the day to maximize scalping the markets and avoiding all major news releases .”

Automated scalping system with specific focus on EUR/USD and GBP/USD pair. The system is designed to operate only three hours of the day to gain fast profits from market movements once the US session is open and trends are formed. The EA has the ability to generate massive profits based on market conditions.

Risk Management

As the system runs only mid-US session, and avoids all news releases, trading is protected against major news releases and the impact of US session open can cause. The system has an intelligent equity cut off level that is set to 30% but can be adjusted to suit traders risk appetite.
