

Strategy

“Trend following EA focusing only on the EUR/USD symbol for low risk trading, maximal returns and low drawdown.”

This specialized expert advisors focuses only on trading EUR/USD trends on the hourly charts and identifies the strength of the trend and executes trades accordingly. Trade volumes remain small to keep risk levels as low as possible and to avoid over exposure.

Risk Management

As the EA is a trend following EA, it does not use martingale systems nor scaling systems to reduce the risk and provide consistent performance. Low profit taking targets are in place to ensure that open trade times are limited and to protect against breakout trends. Trading during news is avoided for extra safety.
